

Maine DOT is filling out its March Madness bracket with the state's bridges

By Emily Burnham, BDN Staff • March 19, 2019 3:35 pm

On the same day that the DOT killed LD 783, they launched a public affair boondoggle to pick “the prettiest bridge in Maine”! You really have to laugh at how inane this is...

In the spirit of March Madness, MaineDOT is launching our own Bridge Bracket Madness! Over the next 15 weekdays, you can vote for the Maine Bridge you think should move on to the next round! You'll narrow it down to the Elite Eight, the Final Four and then we can announce Maine's Favorite Bridge! FMI - check out the photo gallery linked below. Watch for and share our daily postings on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram to discover which bridge holds the coveted title of the most loved bridge in Maine!

Click here to view Facebook page:

This comment says it all:

Todd Thompson • 19 hours ago

At .30 in tax per gallon of gas, i wish they'd just focus on fixing the roads. Stop playing publicity games. Our rural roads look like we live in a third world country. DOT leaders, focus on providing drivable roads. If you want sports, resign and go work there instead.

^ | v • Reply • Share >

Click here to view above comment: